32' Classic Sparkman & Stephens Sailing Yacht "Stormy"

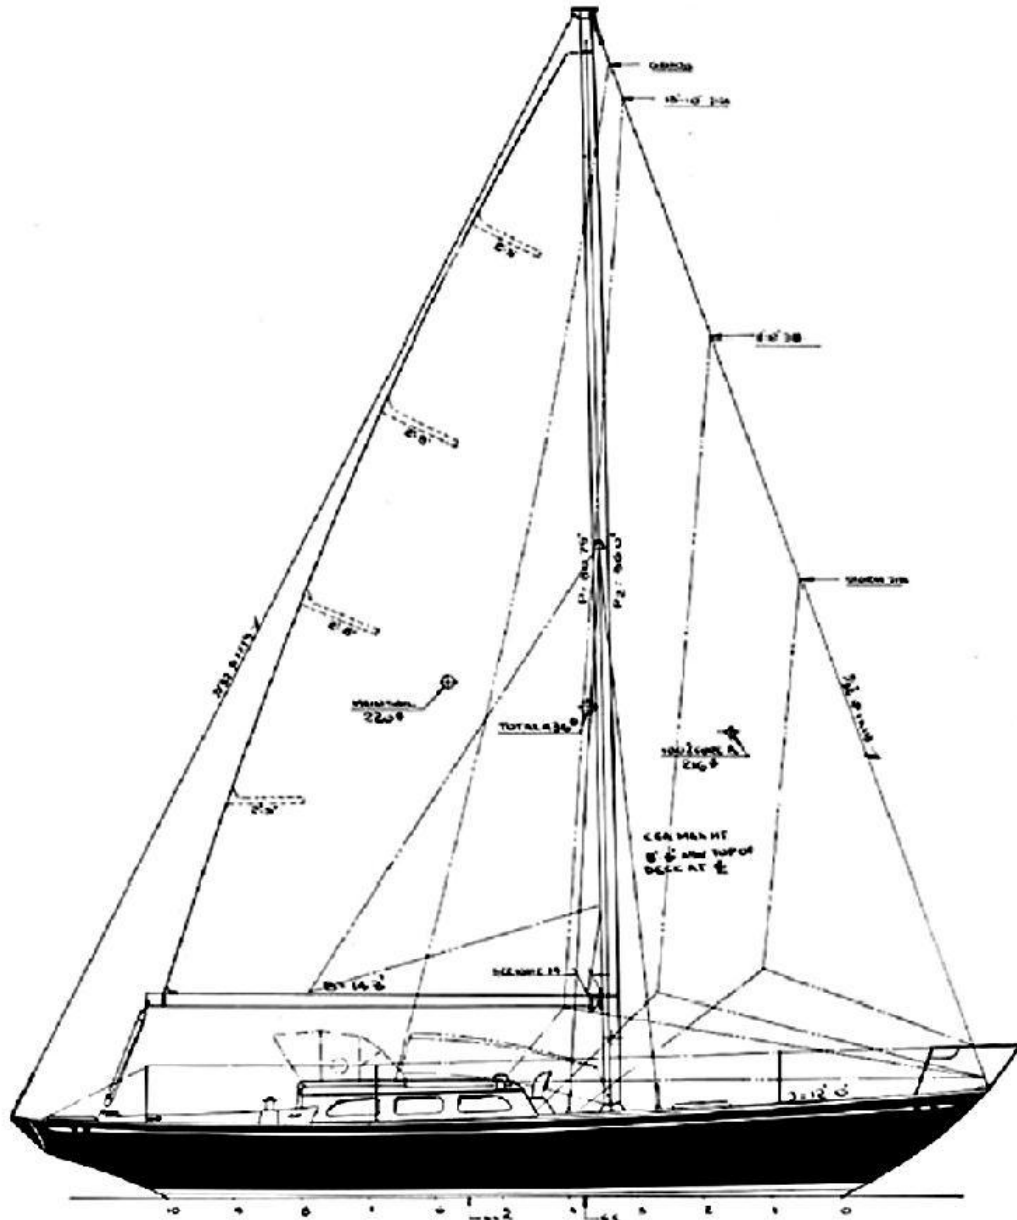

Sparkman & Stephens is proud to announce the listing of the classic S&S 32' "Stormy".

There are no words to aptly describe the beauty of "Stormy" with her bright finished topsides. She has been meticulously restored so that every aspect of the boat sparkles. Originally built as "Poppy" in 1965 and the original owner wanted a boat that combined the beauty of a six meter with a functional interior. The concept was a huge success. "Stormy" is easy to sail and so enjoyable that Olin Stephens went for a sail on her in 2003 during an S&S gathering in Maine.

Her Danish builder, Paul Molich, is ranked among the world's top builders of wooden boats. Morris Yachts and Seal Cove Boat Yard have done an outstanding job in restoring "Stormy" to show condition. "Stormy's" stained and varnished topsides accentuate her classic lines.

Sail Plan

"Stormy" raced quite successfully in classic regattas on Long Island Sound in the 1990s. Her current owner took her to Maine waters in 2000, adapting her for cruising with his young family. A favorite at the 2001 S&S Rendezvous at Mystic Connecticut, she became the design inspiration for the Morris 36 daysailer. A 2001 profile in Maine Boats and Harbors named her as "The Prettiest Sloop in the World."
