Who is invited?
Of course all members of the Association are invited and we hope to see a majority of the membership congregate in Svendborg. But do remember, the invitation goes further. As usual we extend the invitation to your crew and to all friends of the association. And this year we go further - we offer one year free membership to any S&S yacht owner, who comes to Svendborg with his/her yacht. We encourage all members to invite all the owners of S&S yachts they know to come to Svendborg and share the magic of the S&S Association AGM. Good starting point for onward summer cruising around the islands (Sydfynske Øhav) and in the Baltic Sea
A bit more about Svendborg

With a population of 26,872 (1 January 2014), Svendborg is Funen’s second largest city. In 2000 Svendborg was declared “Town of the year” in Denmark, and in 2003 it celebrated its 750th anniversary as a market town.

Maritime educational centre

Svendborg is built facing the harbour and Svendborgsund. The harbour front is fused together with the town, where restaurants and cafés stretch all the way down to the quays providing a picturesque view of cargo ships, ferries and yachts. Boat builders and wooden vessel shipyards have been located in Svendborgsund for generations, and today Svendborg is the country’s leading modern maritime educational centre.

The southern Funen cluster of islands

From Svendborg you can visit the southern Funen cluster of islands. Tåsinge and Thurø are the largest and both have a bridge connection to the mainland, while charming island ferries or your own S&S yacht can take you to Hjortø, Skarø, Drejø and Ærø.

Southern Funen manor houses and castles

Or visit the modern natural history attraction Naturama, which is just 5 minutes walk from Svendborg’s centre. The southern Funen cultural landscape is known for its many beautiful manor houses and castles. Visit Egeskov Slot [Oak Wood Castle] north of Svendborg or Valdemars Slot (Valdemar’s Castle) on Tåsinge.

Berthing along Jessens Mole

We will have the most prestigious location right in the middle of town close to all activities. We have achieved discounted fees for the S&S Association and guest participants:
